

AU: First IM-CLeVeR Spring School, Capo Caccia 1-7 May 2011

The IM-CLeVeR/Aberystwyth University Spring School 2011 is being held at the 2011 CapoCaccia Cognitive Neuromorphic Engineering Workshop. It is aimed at PhD students and young researchers in the fields of computer science, robotics, autonomous systems, machine vision, biologically inspired robotics, machine learning and engineering but is open to interested students in biology, psychology and neuroscience etc. with a reasonable background and skills in robotics and programming.

For more information click here.